[1] Johann Joseph, Graf von Khevenhüller-Aichelberg, Fürst von Khevenhüller-Metsch

[*3.07.1706, Wien; +18.04.1776, Wien], statesman, starting 1728 member of the Imperial Council, between 1734-'37 envoy to Holland and Denmark, 1740 to Dresden, 1742 Lord Steward and First Chamberlain to Maria Theresia, state and conference minister, music count. For 33 years he kept a diary, which serves as an important source about court life in the years 1742-'75. Know as Khevenhüller-Metsch because of his marriage to the daughter of the last Count of Metsch /i.e. Karolina Maria Augustina, Gräfin von Metsch [*26.01.1706; +16.04.1784, Wien].

(I) Extracted from B, M, D KB's of the respected parishes starting 1778.

It would be very easy to extend this table if I would be listing also the family name of all the colonists. Only in the case of Trübswetter we did find in the D KB's for 1773-1813 also the following names which are not listed in the table: Benat, Berger, Bernard, Bourgignon, Brissar, Buisson, Burgoy, Charrière, Cleman, Clodon, Fririon, Girard, Lamoulin, Loran, Pernet, Pierson, Ponsard, Rollin, Simonet, Toussaint, Viome (Wuillaume), Willot -In the B KB's for the village of Saint Hubert and Heufeld, from 1771 to 1773, we did find the names: Lambert, Lavigne, Margier, Piliot, Prinnet (Brunet), Simono, et.

(I) Extracted from Schematicus Cleri pro 1875 / MC: the correct title is "Schematismus Cleri Dioecesis Csanadiensis pro anno domini 1875", Temesvárini, Typis Typographiae Dioecesis Csanád, 224 pages.

(II) Saint Hubert received the name Nagy(Big)-Oroszi in order to be distinguished from a village situate at a short distance and named Kis-Oroszi, village inhabited by Hungarians.

Saint Hubert, Charleville and Seultour are today in the Torontál Comitat, Hatzfeld Stuhlbezirk [administrative circumscription].

The names Nagy-Oroszi, Nagy-Ösz and Kis-Ösz were given by the Hungarians to the colonies of Saint-Hubert, Trübswetter and Gottlob because these Hungarians villages were build on the ruins of villages destroyed in the wars against the Turks. MC: this is completely false!

(III) Trübswetter, once under the dependence of the Crown [K.K Cameral-Velwaltung], then became the possession of Count D'Alvinzy, Austrian general, then was ceded to Count Albert Gyulay. -The [Greek] Orthodox believers which lived here served as working laborers.

(IV) the village was given, in 1790, to the Baron Antoine Liptay, Austrian general, as recompense for his victories against the Turks.

(V) Ostern is lived in Hungarian language as Kis(little)-Komlos, to in order to be distinguished from an important village, Banat-Komlos, inhabited by Romanian Greek Orthodox, situated at 12 km.
